THE WIDOW AND THE COLLECTION

Jewish people have always been very generous to the poor. In the time of Jesus there were collection boxes outside the Temple. They were containers with large horns, like old-fashioned phonographs, and were called the "Trumpets." Proceeds from these boxes help provide food and other assistance. There was a custom of dropping in money in each as an offering to God.

One elderly woman places in a few shekels, a trifling amount. Jesus cites her example to the apostles. The widow's offering may be small, but it is all that she has. Christ contrasts it with the larger donations given by the rich. Their gifts are small compared to their wealth.

BLOODMOBILE

Sacred Heart - St. Joseph Knights of Columbus Council is the sponsor for the Bloodmobile at First Christian Church in Covington on Tuesday, November 12. So, if you stop by to donate blood, don't be surprised if you see familiar faces."

NOTICES

Please join the Knights of Columbus in remembering our Veterans, on Veterans Day Monday Nov 11th. We will assemble at Mt. Carmel Catholic Cemetery Low Moor, rain or shine at 5:00pm to place flags on Veteran graves and recite the Rosary. All parishioners, family, and friends are welcome.

Sacred Heart - St. Joseph Knights of Columbus Council thanks all who are collecting aluminum cans and dropping them off in the orange bin located along the side of the Sacred Heart Rectory garage. Over 1,350 lbs. or more than 44,000 cans have been recycled. Currently, the recycling rate is about 870 pounds per year. The proceeds from recycling aluminum cans are used to fund Council initiatives. Be creative and ask your friends, neighbors, or a business to save aluminum cans for you.

Visit the Catholic Diocese of Richmond YouTube channel for interviews with our clergy and laypeople, coverage of the Eucharistic Revival, and happenings throughout the diocese.

Sacred Heart-St. Joseph Knights of Columbus Council is distributing "Keep Christ in Christmas" car magnets for free after Sunday Vigil and Sunday Masses the first four weekends of November at all three clustered parishes. Each family is welcome to take one magnet either the first or second weekend. After each family wanting a magnet has had the opportunity to get one, each family is welcome to take a second magnet either the third and fourth weekend, if magnets are available.

BE GOOD AND GENEROUS STEWARDS

Today's First Reading from the First Book of Kings, as well as the Gospel passage from Mark, both center on the actions of two seemingly poor and helpless widows who show themselves to be faith-filled and generous stewards.

In the eyes of the world, particularly in biblical times when there was no life insurance or Social Security, these widows were weak and dependent on others to take care of them. They each found themselves in desperate situations — one in the midst of famine with a child for which to care, and the other clearly impoverished. Yet, each demonstrated strength and generosity that distinguished them from those around them. From where did this strength come?

It came from knowing who they are, and whose they are. These women must have known their security would not come from a good life insurance policy or connections to someone with a hidden storehouse of flour.

No, their security came from knowing they were daughters of the Most High God and from putting their faith in Him. They had no need to panic in the midst of natural disaster or cling desperately to their menial resources. Their faith in God set them free to trust Him when all seemed hopeless. Their faith kept them detached from material possessions. Their faith allowed them to be brave and generous, to think of others despite their own trials.

These women saw themselves as stewards, not owners, of the resources God gave them, regardless of how much or how little they had. And acting as stewards made them gracious, generous and mighty indeed.
