JESUS IS RISEN FROM THE DEAD!

“Jesus is risen from the dead! This message resounds in the Church the world over, along with the singing of the Alleluia. He remained two days in the tomb; but his death contained God’s love in all its power, released and made manifest on the third day, the day we celebrate today: the Easter of Christ the Lord. The words heard by the women at the tomb are also addressed to us: Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here but has risen. Death, solitude, and fear are not the last word.

There is a word that transcends them, a word that only God can speak: it is the word of the Resurrection” (Pope Francis). Christ has made good on all he promised. He is truly risen.

In his tender love and mercy, God sent his Son to save us, to die for us, to forgive us, to heal us, to love us the way no one else could love us. Jesus, taking on our human condition, brings light to our darkness and life to our deadness. He makes us a new creation in the Father’s love. This is the true cause for our joy and the reason for our gladness for this day was made for us. We rejoice for we have been reunited to the love of the Father, through the saving work of his Son, in the grace and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. By sharing in the Passion and Death of our Lord, we share in his Resurrection. We rise with him in newness of life.

NOTICES

Blake Alderman will be initiated into the Catholic Church next Sunday, April 28th, at Sacred Heart. There will be a potluck reception, to celebrate Blake as well as to celebrate the confirmation of Abby Martinez. Abby was confirmed on April 8th at the Basilica of St. Andrew in Roanoke. Please bring a dish of your choice and join us in good food and fellowship. You are welcome to come even if you can’t bring a dish.

Sign in to FORMED for the daily Mass readings and insightful reflections This is a great way to start your day!

Faith Formation, Salvation, resumes at Sacred Heart on Tuesday, April 22nd, at 6:30pm in the parish hall.

St. Joseph's Bible Study continues to meet every Tuesday after noon Mass. The lessons are from The Word Among Us daily reading. Everyone is welcome. Those attending should bring a bag lunch. Coffee, tea and water are provided.

A bow is made before receiving Communion, and this also applies when receiving both the Body and Blood of Christ, according to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal.

REGARDLESS OF RECEPTION:

*Whether or not one is receiving from the cup, the bow is a sign of reverence for the Blood of Christ being offered. ****

VOCATIONS

“The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious.” Docility in prayer is essential to vocation discernment. Are you open to a vocation to the priesthood, diaconate or the consecrated life?

HE IS RISEN!

He is risen! He is truly risen! This is what the celebration of Easter is all about — the truth that Jesus was crucified for our sins and three days later rose from the dead, conquering death once and for all.

We know it's true, but this Easter Sunday, let's ask ourselves if we live as if it's true. Do we live as witnesses to the glorious reality of the Resurrection?

A witness, of course, is one with first-hand knowledge. Our readings today focus not only on the Resurrection itself, but also on those who were witnesses to it.

In the Gospel, St. John describes the very first witnesses to the empty tomb, Mary Magdalene, John ("the disciple whom Jesus loved"), and Peter. Each had an individual "experience" of the empty tomb. Each went up close to see for themselves what Jesus' love had accomplished.

How can we as Christian stewards all these years later see for ourselves and so become His witnesses? We "see for ourselves" when we prayerfully read the Scriptures knowing they are a living love letter from God with a message to each one of us. We "see for ourselves" each time we receive the precious Body and Blood of our Lord in the Eucharist. We "see for ourselves" when we experience His personal and healing power in our hearts during Reconciliation. We "see for ourselves" when we pour out our lives in loving service to those around us and experience the deep satisfaction that only comes when we are imitating our Savior.

This Easter, resolve to live as if the saving power of the Resurrection is true. Experience Jesus for yourself every day from now on. You will be a powerful witness to the truth that He is risen! He is truly risen!
